

Consultant Palliative Medicine Specialist

- Part time and casual opportunities are available.
- World class facility based in the stunning Geelong region.
- Values-based organisation providing exceptional person-centred palliative care.

Anam Cara Geelong (Anam Cara) is a values-based organisation. We care deeply about our community and our people. We pride ourselves on offering a flexible and inclusive workplace in a supportive team environment.

Our world-class facility, located at Deakin University in Waurin Ponds, has been purposefully designed to deliver palliative care in a hospital setting that offers the warmth and comfort of home. We provide compassionate care which includes a 12-bed inpatient palliative care unit, outpatient services and a Living Well Palliative Care Day program.

Working in the Region

Living and working in the Geelong, Surf Coast, and Bellarine region offers the perfect balance of lifestyle and opportunity. Just an hour from Melbourne, this vibrant area combines stunning coastal landscapes, charming towns and a strong sense of community. Working with a growing organisation in Geelong means you can enjoy a rewarding career while embracing a relaxed, coastal lifestyle without having to compromise on either.

About the Role

The Palliative Medicine Specialist at Anam Cara will play a pivotal role in providing compassionate and comprehensive care to patients facing life-limiting illnesses. In this integral role, you will be responsible for delivering person-centred, holistic and high-quality palliative care services that aim to enhance the quality of life for our patients and their families. You will work closely with our interdisciplinary team which includes a Spiritual Care practitioner and Art Therapist, to alleviate suffering, manage symptoms and support patients in their journey towards a peaceful and dignified end-of-life experience. The role also involves exciting opportunities to contribute to teaching, research, and the supervision of medical students as part of our commitment to education and continuous improvement in palliative care.

About You

You are registered with AHPRA as a medical practitioner.

- You have a Fellowship with the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (Palliative Care) or Fellowship of the Australasian Chapter of Palliative Medicine.
- You can provide evidence of continuing practice and medical education in Palliative Care medicine.
- You can demonstrate a strong commitment to guest and family-centered care and a compassionate approach to guest interactions.
- You have excellent communication skills and the ability to work effectively in a multidisciplinary team.
- You have knowledge of pain and symptom management, ethical issues in end-of-life care, and advance care planning.

Why Join the Anam Cara Team

At Anam Cara Our Values guide us to show Respect, Dignity, Accountability, Compassion and Excellence. At Anam Cara you will;

- Make a difference: Contribute to the well-being of patients with your exceptional skills.
- Growth opportunities: Advance your career in a supportive environment.
- Collaborative team: Join a diverse group of professionals who share your passion.
- Competitive remuneration: We value your skills and offer competitive remuneration with salary packaging.

If you're ready to join a for purpose organisation in a unique healthcare setting, apply today by sending your resume and a cover letter outlining your relevant experience to peopleandculture@achg.org.au. Join us in providing outstanding guest care and become an essential part of our team!

You can find further information about Anam Cara here - www.achg.org.au

For a confidential conversation or for a copy of the Position Description, please contact Emma Lothian, People and Culture Business Partner, at peopleandculture@achg.org.au or phone (03) 5222 5831.

We are an inclusive employer and encourage applications from everyone. We value our staff for their unique qualities, ideas and insights. People bring a range of skills and perspectives to the workplace. This may be due to gender, race, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, intersex status or other differences.

A diverse workforce with a range of different backgrounds and perspectives provides us with a broader range of ideas and insights to draw on in decision-making and policy development. A workplace that reflects the community that we support and serve will lead to improved service delivery and a more inclusive community for all.