

Palliative Care GP Specialist

- Part time and casual opportunities are available.
- World class facility based in the stunning Geelong region.
- Values-based organisation providing exceptional person-centred palliative care.

Anam Cara Geelong (Anam Cara) is a values-based organisation. We care deeply about our community and our people. We pride ourselves on offering a flexible and inclusive workplace in a supportive team environment.

Our world-class facility, located at Deakin University in Waurin Ponds, has been purposefully designed to deliver palliative care in a hospital setting that offers the warmth and comfort of home. We provide compassionate care which includes a 12-bed inpatient palliative care unit, outpatient services and a Living Well Palliative Care Day program.

Working in the Region

Living and working in the Geelong, Surf Coast, and Bellarine region offers the perfect balance of lifestyle and opportunity. Just an hour from Melbourne, this vibrant area combines stunning coastal landscapes, charming towns and a strong sense of community. Working with a growing organisation in Geelong means you can enjoy a rewarding career while embracing a relaxed, coastal lifestyle without having to compromise on either.

About the Role

The position of Palliative Care GP Specialist at Anam Cara House Geelong (Anam Cara) you will play a pivotal role in providing compassionate and comprehensive care to guests facing life-limiting illnesses. In this integral role, you will be responsible for delivering guest-centred, holistic, and high-quality palliative care services that aim to enhance the quality of life for our guests and their families. You will work closely with our interdisciplinary team to alleviate suffering, manage symptoms, and support guests in their journey towards a peaceful and dignified end-of-life experience

About You

You are registered with AHPRA as a medical practitioner.

- You have completed or are making progress towards completion of RACP Clinical Foundation in Palliative Medicine (or equivalent)
- You can demonstrate evidence of continuing practice and medical education in Palliative Care medicine
- You have a strong commitment to guest and family-centered care and a compassionate approach to guest interactions.
- You are an excellent communicator and can work effectively in a multidisciplinary team.
- You have a sound knowledge of pain and symptom management, ethical issues in end-of-life care, and advance care planning.

Why Join the Anam Cara Team

At Anam Cara, our values of Respect, Dignity, Accountability, Compassion and Excellence guide everything we do. When you join our team, you will:

- Make a difference – Use your expertise to improve the quality of life for guests and their families.

- Grow your career – Access professional development and learning opportunities in a supportive environment.
- Work collaboratively – Be part of a diverse, passionate and dedicated team.
- Enjoy great benefits – Receive competitive remuneration, salary packaging and free on-site parking.
- Achieve balance – Take advantage of flexible work arrangements that support your lifestyle.

If you're ready to join a for purpose organisation in a unique healthcare setting, we'd love to hear from you.

How to Apply

Please submit your confidential application (cover letter and resume) to Emma Lothian, People and Culture Business Partner, via email at peopleandculture@achg.org.au. In your cover letter, please include:

- Your notice period or preferred commencement date
- Your remuneration expectations
- Your availability across a 24/7 operation, including preferred days and hours of work

Applications will be reviewed as they are received, so early submission is encouraged.

Please note: Direct applications only. We are not accepting contact from recruiters for this role.

For a confidential discussion about this opportunity, please contact Emma Lothian on (03) 4250 8445.

We value our team members for their unique qualities, ideas and insights. A diverse workforce with a range of different backgrounds and perspectives provides us with a broader range of ideas and insights to draw on in decision-making and policy development. A workplace that reflects the community that we support and serve will lead to improved service delivery and a more inclusive community for all.